QUESTIONS FOR THE ATTORNEY

Ask each attorney the same route, record and engagement questions. Record where the written answer appears.

Records: which categories should be reviewed, when and through what secure process?

Assessment: what can be addressed now, and what requires more information?

Scope: which advice, negotiation, agency, document, filing or court tasks are included?

Team and communication: who handles the matter and documents decisions?

Urgency: how should time-sensitive or safety-sensitive questions be raised?

Preparation only. Not legal advice, case assessment, agency or court selection, calculation, filing, enforcement, safety or outcome guidance. No attorney-client relationship. Keep identities, case numbers, amounts and records private.
