Privacy and scope readiness check

Confirm that your public preparation stays neutral and that scope questions are ready.

- [ ] Use neutral matter and issue labels only.
- [ ] Keep names, addresses, dates, allegations and case numbers out.
- [ ] Keep account values, children, witnesses and communications out.
- [ ] Index records by broad category, not by contents.
- [ ] Ask jurisdiction, court and urgent-date questions privately.
- [ ] Separate consultation, advice, negotiation, document, filing and appearance work.
- [ ] Ask who handles each stage and how scope changes are approved.
- [ ] Compare the same brief, written scope, fees and working fit.
