QUESTIONS FOR A COLORADO ATTORNEY

Record how this attorney would evaluate, scope, communicate, and document the engagement.

Issues and experience: what needs private review first, and what similar Colorado matters does the attorney handle?

Scope: what advice, negotiation, drafting, filing, hearing, or coordination work is included or excluded?

Team and communication: who works on the matter, how are updates handled, and what counts as urgent?

Privacy and records: how are conflicts, confidential communications, documents, access, and retention handled?

Colorado process: how will current court, forms, service, timing, fees, procedure, and location be verified?

Fees and terms: what is the complete fee structure, what expenses or assumptions may change it, and what do the written terms cover?

Preparation only. Not legal advice, a form recommendation, filing guide, deadline calculation, safety plan, or attorney-client relationship.
