BUILD THE PRIVATE CONSULTATION BRIEF

Prepare the same high-level facts for each attorney. Keep all identifying, financial, child, safety and evidence details private.

A helpful preparation resource from PickYourPro.ai. Fill in digitally or print. Keep your completed copy private.

Private follow-up method to share securely later - do not enter names, addresses or case numbers here

Marriage and separation timeline as remembered - attorney to determine legal relevance

Current court or case status if any, described broadly - attorney to confirm; no case number

Children or parenting topics at category level only - no child identities or private details

Property, debt, income or business categories to discuss - no amounts or account identifiers

Immediate concerns or dates reported for attorney verification - no deadline calculation

Preparation only. Not legal advice, a form recommendation, filing or response guide, deadline calculation, safety plan, or attorney-client relationship.

QUESTIONS FOR A CONNECTICUT DIVORCE ATTORNEY

Record how each attorney would evaluate, communicate and scope work for the same private brief.

Priorities: what should we discuss first and what private information is still needed?

Role: which stages could you handle and which decisions or tasks stay with me?

Connecticut process: how will you verify the court, forms and dates that apply?

Privacy: how should sensitive records and updates be exchanged securely?

Terms: how are conflicts, scope, retainer, billing, communication and changes documented?

Next step: what remains open and what could change the proposed engagement?

Preparation only. Not legal advice, a form recommendation, filing or response guide, deadline calculation, safety plan, or attorney-client relationship.

COMPARE THE SAME CONSULTATION BRIEF

Use A and B in every box. Compare written engagement details only after each attorney has reviewed the same private context.

Attorney A / Attorney B / consultation dates and the same high-level brief

Experience, issue priorities, attorney role, representation stages and client tasks - A / B

Conflicts, secure records, communication, response expectations and working approach - A / B

Written scope, fee structure, billing, retainer, next steps and open questions - A / B

READY TO HEAR FROM PROS?

Create an account on PickYourPro.ai only if you choose, then start a Divorce Attorney request. Share a non-sensitive summary of the consultation topic, desired attorney role and communication preferences so participating attorneys can compete with engagement proposals. Compare experience, representation scope, fees, communication and fit; a private consultation and conflicts check may be required before engagement.

One request. Every pro's best offer.
