GEORGIA COURT-RESOURCE ROUTING / 01

LABEL THE OFFICIAL RESOURCE PATHS

Record public labels and references only. The labels do not select a form, court or legal path.

A helpful preparation resource from PickYourPro.ai. Fill in digitally or print. Keep your completed copy private.

Georgia Courts divorce hub / review date / question raised

Statewide with-minor-children page label and link / reviewed? / no route selected

Statewide without-minor-children page label and link / reviewed? / no route selected

County Superior Court resource page or packet reference / county label only

Document or packet label exactly as displayed / version or page date if shown

Unresolved navigation question for a Georgia attorney / no private facts

Preparation only. Not legal advice, a form recommendation, court or venue selection, filing or service guide, deadline calculation, safety plan or attorney-client relationship.

GEORGIA COURT-RESOURCE ROUTING / 02

SEPARATE NAVIGATION FROM LEGAL ADVICE

Keep the county and statewide references distinct. Ask an attorney what applies after a private review.

County resource reference / statewide resource reference / what appears different

Missing or inaccessible county resource / public contact or page checked

Children or no-children label question / private facts withheld for consultation

Court or venue question for attorney / no location conclusion recorded

Form, filing, service or date question for attorney / no instruction inferred

Secure follow-up method the attorney approves / records to share later

Preparation only. Not legal advice, a form recommendation, court or venue selection, filing or service guide, deadline calculation, safety plan or attorney-client relationship.

GEORGIA COURT-RESOURCE ROUTING / 03

CHECK THE CONSULTATION BRIEF

Tick what is ready. These checks do not approve a route, form or filing.

- [ ] Identifying, child, financial, safety and evidence details stay private
- [ ] County and statewide references remain separate
- [ ] Children and no-children labels are not treated as a route decision
- [ ] No court, venue or form has been selected here
- [ ] No filing, service or deadline instruction has been inferred
- [ ] Reported dates are reserved for attorney verification
- [ ] Official Georgia links are used only for navigation
- [ ] Private records will use an attorney-approved secure channel

Resource differences still unresolved / exact question to ask

Private record categories available later through a secure channel

Attorney role, scope, fee and next-step questions to compare

Preparation only. Not legal advice, a form recommendation, court or venue selection, filing or service guide, deadline calculation, safety plan or attorney-client relationship.

GEORGIA COURT-RESOURCE ROUTING / 04

QUESTIONS FOR A GEORGIA DIVORCE ATTORNEY

Use the same non-sensitive brief for each consultation and record how the attorney would verify the path.

Court and route: what will you verify after reviewing my facts privately?

Private intake: what information is needed before advising on resource paths?

County versus statewide materials: how will a difference be resolved?

Privacy: how should records, dates, sensitive facts and urgent concerns be shared?

Scope: which stages and tasks are included, excluded or client-owned?

Terms: how are conflicts, fees, billing, communication and changes documented?

Preparation only. Not legal advice, a form recommendation, court or venue selection, filing or service guide, deadline calculation, safety plan or attorney-client relationship.

GEORGIA COURT-RESOURCE ROUTING / 05

COMPARE THE SAME CONSULTATION

Use Attorney A and B in every box. Compare written engagement details after each has the same private context.

Attorney A / B / consultation dates / same high-level brief

Court-resource verification approach / county-statewide differences / open questions - A / B

Private intake, secure records, communication and client tasks - A / B

Written scope, conflicts, fee structure, billing, next steps and exclusions - A / B

READY TO HEAR FROM PROS?
