CARRY THE TRIAL INTO THE APPOINTMENT

Separate a preference from the artist's confirmation. Leave private product concerns out.

Trial: participant / services covered / included, separate or not requested

Trial note: reference / preferences to keep / artist confirmation needed

Requested change: participant and service / reference / artist's reply

Person A: provider-confirmed slot / service sequence / readiness arrangement

Person B or group: confirmed slots / readiness arrangement / open conflict

Artist and assistant roles / travel and setup questions / staffing confirmation

Preparation only. Not styling, product selection, patch testing, sanitation, health or legal advice. No suitability or outcome guarantee. Keep identities, private images and health details out.

CHECK THE FINAL SERVICE PLAN

Tick what is confirmed. Keep open questions visible rather than guessing timing.

- [ ] Each participant has a separate service choice
- [ ] References are linked to the correct person and service
- [ ] Trial inclusions and separate appointments are clear
- [ ] Preferences to keep and requested changes are distinguished
- [ ] Appointment slots and readiness arrangements are provider-confirmed
- [ ] Artist, assistant and substitution questions are answered
- [ ] Travel, setup, touch-ups and optional extras are separated
- [ ] The final written plan uses the latest agreed choices

Touch-ups, accessories or extras: participant / included or separate / reference

Later change: participant and service / revised preference / confirmation reference

Remaining appointment question / person to answer / final plan version

Preparation only. Not styling, product selection, patch testing, sanitation, health or legal advice. No suitability or outcome guarantee. Keep identities, private images and health details out.

QUESTIONS FOR THE STYLING PROVIDER

Record specific answers for the same participant and service list.

Services: how are each person's hair and makeup choices documented?

Trial: what is included and how are preferences and changes carried forward?

Timing: who confirms appointment slots, sequence and readiness arrangements?

Team: who provides each service and how are substitutions handled?

Extras: what travel, setup, accessories and touch-up coverage is included?

Changes: how are revisions, rescheduling and final confirmation handled?

Preparation only. Not styling, product selection, patch testing, sanitation, health or legal advice. No suitability or outcome guarantee. Keep identities, private images and health details out.

COMPARE THE SAME STYLING PLAN

Use A and B for providers. Compare the same participants, choices and appointment needs.

Provider A / B / proposal dates / common participant and service list

Trial coverage, preferences to keep and requested changes - A / B

Appointment plan, artist roles, travel, setup and touch-ups - A / B

Optional extras, revisions, rescheduling, written terms and open questions - A / B
