QUESTIONS FOR A HAWAII ATTORNEY

Ask each attorney the same route and engagement questions. Official pages remain reference points, not advice.

Route: which statewide and circuit sources should be confirmed, and by whom?

References: which packet or form-set questions belong in the private consultation?

Records: which categories should be reviewed and through what secure process?

Scope: which advice, review, negotiation, document, filing or court tasks are included?

Team and communication: who handles notices, decisions and scope changes?

Urgency: how should time-sensitive or safety-sensitive questions be raised?

Preparation only. Not legal advice, circuit or venue selection, form selection, filing, deadline, safety, financial or outcome guidance. No attorney-client relationship. Keep identities, case facts, figures and records private.
