CHECK CONSULTATION READINESS

Tick what is organized. These checks do not select a form, route, deadline, strategy or legal result.

- [ ] Every attorney receives the same neutral Matter A brief
- [ ] Names, child details, case numbers and dates remain private
- [ ] Financial facts, papers and evidence remain outside this sheet
- [ ] Current Idaho Court Assistance divorce hub is saved
- [ ] Route selection remains a private attorney question
- [ ] Attorney role and requested scope are visible
- [ ] Conflicts and secure intake are confirmed before records
- [ ] Communication and engagement next steps will be written

Open official-route question / attorney to confirm

Private paper or date needing prompt secure review

Unclear scope, responsibility or engagement term

Preparation only. Not legal advice, form selection, filing or service instructions, deadline calculation, jurisdiction, eligibility, rights, custody, support, property, tax, strategy or outcome guidance. QUESTIONS FOR AN IDAHO DIVORCE ATTORNEY

Record the answer and where it appears in consultation notes or written engagement documents.

Conflicts and intake: how should private facts and records be shared?

Official route: what current Idaho route should we discuss and who confirms it?

Urgent items: how are papers or dates reviewed privately?

Scope: what attorney and client tasks are included or excluded?

Security: what channel should hold records and evidence?

Engagement: how do communication, terms and next steps work?

Preparation only. Not legal advice, form selection, filing or service instructions, deadline calculation, jurisdiction, eligibility, rights, custody, support, property, tax, strategy or outcome guidance. No attorney-client relationship. Keep identities, child details, case numbers, papers, financial facts and evidence out.
