NEW YORK MOBILE BEAUTY QUESTIONS / 01

LINK THE SERVICE TO THE PROPOSED ROLES

Use Service A and Provider A. Separate the booking business from the person proposed to perform the service.

A helpful preparation resource from PickYourPro.ai. Fill in digitally or print. Keep your completed copy private.

Service label / requested beauty service / provider's description to clarify

Proposed performer label / service assigned / confirmation still needed

Booking business label / relationship to performer / explanation reference

DOS business record route / provider-supplied reference / checked date

DOS individual record route / performer reference / checked date

Missing or unclear match / question for provider or DOS / reply reference Preparation only. Not legal, licensing or medical advice. No record or booking establishes permission at a location.

KEEP THE SETTING QUESTION SEPARATE

Use Setting A, not an address. A venue arrangement or booking confirmation is not service authorization.

Setting label / general setting type / service and performer linked to it

Service-and-setting question / provider asked / private reply reference

Question for appropriate agency / official route / reply awaited or referenced

Separate venue coordination question / responsible role / reply reference

Changed service, performer or setting / earlier answers needing recheck

Clarification still missing / who will address it / private record reference

Preparation only. Not legal, licensing or medical advice. No record or booking establishes permission at a location.

CHECK THE UNANSWERED APPOINTMENT QUESTIONS

Tick questions organized or clarified, not licensing compliance or permission to proceed with a service.

- [ ] Services and settings use neutral labels
- [ ] Each service has a proposed performer or an open question
- [ ] Business relationship and individual role are separate
- [ ] New York DOS record routes are identified
- [ ] Unclear record matches remain visible as questions
- [ ] Actual service-and-setting question has its own reference
- [ ] Venue coordination is not treated as authorization
- [ ] Changes trigger a review of the affected questions

Service without a confirmed performer / business relationship still unclear

Record question or setting clarification outstanding / role asked / reference

Changed appointment detail / prior answer affected / new clarification needed

Preparation only. Not legal, licensing or medical advice. No record or booking establishes permission at a location.

NEW YORK MOBILE BEAUTY QUESTIONS / 04

QUESTIONS FOR THE BEAUTY PROVIDER

Use official routes for unresolved New York questions. Keep client health, location and treatment details private.

People: who performs each service and which business is involved?

Records: which separate business and individual route references apply?

Mismatch: who can clarify an unclear name, role or record?

Setting: what should the appropriate agency clarify for this arrangement?

Venue: which logistics questions remain separate from authorization?

Changes: how are replacement performers, services and settings reviewed?

Preparation only. Not legal, licensing or medical advice. No record or booking establishes permission at a location.

NEW YORK MOBILE BEAUTY QUESTIONS / 05

COMPARE THE SAME ROLE AND SETTING QUESTIONS

Compare written explanations, not a licensing score. Use the same service labels and general setting scenario.

Providers A / B / proposal references / common service and setting labels

Proposed performers, business relationships and record routes - A / B

Separate setting questions, agency clarification and venue coordination - A / B

Changes, unresolved questions, exclusions and written terms - A / B
