QUESTIONS FOR AN OHIO DIVORCE ATTORNEY

Ask each attorney the same route and engagement questions. Use official court pages only as references for the conversation.

Route: which court and local-rules sources should be confirmed?

Forms: which references should be discussed without self-selecting?

Scope: which stages and tasks are included or excluded?

Documents: who prepares, reviews, files, serves or retains each item?

Communication: how are notices and time-sensitive questions handled?

Privacy: how should private records be shared after engagement?

Preparation only. Not legal, court, filing, procedural, tax or financial advice. No form or case-type selection, local-rule interpretation, deadline calculation, filing instruction or outcome prediction. Keep case facts and private records out.
