CEREMONY SCRIPT REVIEW / 01

LABEL THE SEGMENTS AND DRAFTS

Use neutral segment labels and private-file references. This is a review map, not a script or a required ceremony sequence.

A helpful preparation resource from PickYourPro.ai. Fill in digitally or print. Keep your completed copy private.

Segment S1 / purpose in my own words / private draft reference and version

S1 / intended reader role / wording confirmation role / review status

Segment S2 / purpose in my own words / private draft reference and version

S2 / intended reader role / wording confirmation role / review status

Personalization preference or topic to avoid / discuss privately with whom?

Which drafting, review and read-through meetings are proposed or confirmed?

FOLLOW AN EDIT THROUGH TO THE COPY

A request, a reply and an agreed version are different. Keep each connected to the same segment label.

Segment label / earlier draft reference / edit request label

Requested change summary without script text / requesting role / question

Officiant reply reference / accepted edit, alternative suggestion or still open?

Revised draft reference / which requested edit does it address?

Agreed read-through copy reference / confirming role / confirmation reference

Pronunciation, pacing or reader-handoff question / segment / reply or unresolved

Preparation only. Creative preparation only. Not required language, permission, officiant authority, marriage validity or legal advice. Keep personal stories and script contents private.

CHECK WHICH VERSION WILL BE READ

Tick what has been clarified. Creative agreement does not establish legal compliance or permission to use a work.

- [ ] Segments have neutral labels
- [ ] Draft references identify versions without private contents
- [ ] Reader and wording-confirmation roles are distinct
- [ ] Requested edits point to the draft being changed
- [ ] Replies and unresolved questions remain separate
- [ ] The agreed read-through copy is clearly identified
- [ ] Pronunciation and reader-handoff questions have segment labels
- [ ] Included revisions and separate specialist questions are clear

Two different copies still in circulation? / segment / who will clarify the intended one

Reader or pronunciation question still open / response owner / reference

Late change / affected segment and copy / review and reconfirmation to discuss

Preparation only. Creative preparation only. Not required language, permission, officiant authority, marriage validity or legal advice. Keep personal stories and script contents private.

QUESTIONS FOR THE OFFICIANT

Ask about this provider's actual review process. Do not assume a particular number of meetings or revisions is included.

Structure: how do you label ceremony segments and draft versions for review?

Roles: who drafts, requests edits and confirms wording for each segment?

Comments: how do you track conflicting edits and your replies?

Copies: how do we identify what each reader will use at the read-through and ceremony?

Delivery: how do we confirm pronunciation, pacing and reader handoffs?

Scope: which reviews are included, and how are later edits or separate questions handled?

Preparation only. Creative preparation only. Not required language, permission, officiant authority, marriage validity or legal advice. Keep personal stories and script contents private.

COMPARE THE SCRIPT-REVIEW SUPPORT

Use Officiant A and B for the same creative brief. This comparison does not verify authority or ceremony validity.

Officiant A / B / proposal dates / same personalization brief version

Segment drafting, reader roles and wording confirmation - A / B

Edit tracking, version control and agreed read-through copy - A / B

Review meetings, revision support, later changes and written exclusions - A / B

READY TO HEAR FROM PROS?

If you choose, create an account on PickYourPro.ai and start a Wedding Officiant request. Describe your non-sensitive script-review and personalization needs so participating pros can compete with proposals. Compare drafting roles, review meetings, revision support, reader coordination, exclusions and written terms. Keep personal stories and private script files in your own planning process.

One request. Every pro's best offer.
